

I signed up for NJ's Do Not Call list for a specific reason: I do NOT have the funds for charitable or additional purchases since I recently filed for Chapter 7 bankruptcy. For the most part, I have been spared the embarrassment of having to decline each and every offer since signing on for NJ's Do Not Call list. Unfortunately, for the couple of charities that still get through -- the various police 'benevolent' organizations, I might add -- the callers have NOT been benevolent. I have been HARASSED to give a donation -- even when I said I filed bankruptcy!!!! THAT is WHY NJ's Do Not Call list should remain ineffect.
